

How To Be a Butt-Kicking Bombshell

in 10 Easy Steps: A Whole New Approach to Sex, Self-Esteem & Self-Defense

A Unique Performance / Workshop
by Ducky DooLittle & Emily Stern

THE SHOW:

Join Ducky DooLittle & Emily Stern as they take you on a death-defying trip through 10 all true tales of sex, guts & glory. Ducky uses an ample dose of humor to tackling topics like boob fanatics, beer goggles, why we are so mean to ourselves, sex and the media, being born with birth defects, and how self-defense changed her life. Emily will use her notorious story telling skills to deliver tales of personal epiphanies about finding filthy love in a sleazy motel, living beyond stereotypes, setting boundaries in the office, bedroom or at Christmas dinner, and how to fight a drunk guy.

A powerful show about
Self-Exploration, Self-Acceptance and Self-Defense.

You will get all this while learning practical tips on how to be sexy, how to define sexual boundaries, how to make smart decisions, how to respect yourself and focusing on your assets (inside & out), how to kick butt, and how to be the best you can be. In the end you'll walk away understanding with a whole new approach to how you can have your way with yourself and the world!

ABOUT DUCKY & EMILY:

DUCKY DoolITTLE is a Comedian and Sexologist from New York City. She's hilarious and sincere, as she zeros in on relevant topics like self-esteem, safer sex and how substance abuse affects sexuality. Ducky mixes humor with sex advice, giving her audience permission to laugh and relax as she dishes out real, solid information. Ducky has had five national tours to date including her wildly successful Lustful Life 2004 Tour. A few of her TV/radio appearances include: NPR, MTV, VH1, HBO, Comedy Central, and MSNBC. The Village Voice says, "From her glossy pageboy to her vertiginous high heels-not to mention the irrepressible bosom in between-she's a font of know-how, sex appeal, and good humor." And the Fort Worth Weekly reports, "Ducky Doolittle was an audience favorite because she is funny. Out walks this petite yet voluptuous ball of fire. Her delivery is forthright and honest. She does not mind talking about her own journey in order to make an educational point."

Ducky DooLittle is a member of the National Association of Campus Activities. She has appeared at: Antioch College, Barnard College, Columbia University, New York University, Pace University, Sarah Lawrence College, University of Michigan, Vassar College, Wesleyan University to name a few. We can not even begin to list the oodles of theaters, comedy clubs, night clubs, hospitals, non-profits organizations and even church groups that have invited Ducky to perform over the years. EMILY STERN (aka Spider), is a Performer, Writer, Teacher, and Personal and Organizing Consultant. Gutsy, sexy, insightful, raw, courageous and charming, she's been referred to as "A cross between Joey Ramone, Samantha Fox and Oprah Winfrey". For over a decade she's been doing her workshop "Heartmarks: A Daughter's Perspective of Her Mother's Death From AIDS". From there, she's gone on to teach about Self-Defense, Self-Esteem, Sexual Stigmas, Gender Roles, Grassroots Organizing, Creative Writing, and all combinations in between. A whiz at recognizing interconnectedness, she integrates people, communities, and concepts to promote self-awareness and empowerment. Stern was a co-creator, star, and the production manager of the nationally recognized original rock opera The Transfused with Nomy Lamm, The Need, and Freddie Fagula. She also produced Dr. Frockrocket's Vivifying Re-Animonitronic Menagerie and Medicine Show, along with Nomy Lamm, Rachel Carns and Jody Blyele. The Minnesota Women's Press has described Emily as "well-spoken, funny, smart, charismatic", and Boston's Bay Windows calls her "a magnetic orator." You can read more about her at www.emilystern.com (Website up in September.)
